

RIOJA VEGA CRIANZA

2016

Gold Medal

CHALLENGE INTERNATIONAL DU VIN

April 2019. RIOJA VEGA CRIANZA 2016 has received a GOLD MEDAL from the Challenge International du Vin.

The key to success lies in the exceptional quality of this modern and expressive Rioja Crianza, a quality based on the utmost respect for its origin. This virtue has secured this recent Gold Medal, but also similar awards from the Mundus Vini, Rioja Masters, Sommelier Wine Awards, and Berliner Wein Trophy international wine challenges, as well as the election as Best Old World Wine by the NOFFLA international wine contest.

Also, media and critics from very different countries have granted Rioja Vega Crianza excellent ratings. To name but a few examples, the American magazines Wine Spectator, Wine Enthusiast, and VINOUS; British wine expert Jamie Goodie, of The Daily Express; The Independent on Sunday; and The Drinks Business magazine, have all praised Rioja Vega Crianza's exceptional quality.

Founded in 1882, Rioja Vega has always strived for the best quality possible and the unique character of its wines, a philosophy which has guaranteed success during more than 130 years of history.

